FALSE, DESTRUCTIVE WAYS OF PLEASURE

From "The Triumph of Time and Truth" (1757)

Edited by Ebenezer Prout

GEORGE FRIDERIC HANDEL

Allegro (d=120)

BASS

PIANO

c. 8ve ad lib.

Copyright 1935 by Oliver Ditson Company
False, destructive ways of pleasure
Leave, and court a nobler

In the starry realms above,

In the starry realms above.
False, destructive

ways of pleasure Leave, and court a nobler treasure,

Leave, and court a nobler treasure, In the star-

ry realms above,
In the star—

—ry realms a—bo—ve,
Leave, and court a

—no—bler treasure, a— no—bler treas—

—ure, In the star—ry realms a—bo—ve.
Here, though Folly's sons defy me, Yet in vain they seek to fly me,
Yet in vain they seek to fly me, While through all the world I rove, While through

(ad lib.)

all, through all the world I rove. a tempo
colla voce

Dal Segno ♫

Dal Segno ♫