No. 10.

Recit.—O didst thou know.

O didst thou know the pains of absent love, A.cis wou'd neer from Ga.la.te.a grove.

No. 11.

Air.—As when the dove, laments her love.

Andante.

As when the dove, La.ments her love, All on the na. ked spray;

When he returns, No more she mourns, But loves........ the live-long day.

But loves the live-long day.

As when the dove, laments her love, all on the naked spray; When he returns, no more she mourns, no, no, no,

When he returns, no more she mourns, but loves the live-long day; When
He returns, no more she mourns, but loves.

......, but loves the live-long day.

Billing, coo-ing, Panting, woo-ing, Melting

Mur. Murs fill the grove, Melting mur.
Murmurs, lasting love. Melting murmurs fill the grove, Melting murmurs, lasting love. Billing, cooing, Panting, wooing;

Melt ing murmurs fill the grove, Melting murmurs, lasting love.

---

Hendel's "Aria di Galatea." (Noyse's Full Part.)

D.C. at Segno.